

Happy New Year, Garden Family! We're celebrating beautiful weather and fresh possibilities this January with nature-based activities that are full of creativity. All programs and events this month are included with the cost of admission and free for annual members while supplies last. May this new year bring your family health, happiness, and lots of nature play!

Thursday, January 2nd, 11am Dragons Love Tacos Join us at the stage for a reading of "Dragons Love Tacos" with our taco paper craft and chips to snack on.

Friday, January 3rd, 11am Wake up, Fairies! Wake up our fairy friends this morning with a tambourine craft to embellish.

Tuesday, January 7th, 11am The Very Hungry Caterpillar Today, we're reading a childhood favorite, "The Very Hungry Caterpillar" and crafting a sweet pom pom caterpillar.

Friday, January 10th, 11am Camouflage Art We're learning about a phenomenon found all over nature and making our own camouflage art with nature finds.

Happy Birthday, Winnie the Pooh! We are celebrating our beloved Winnie the Pooh's birthday all week with treasured stories and crafts right from the Hundred Acre Wood.

Tuesday, January 14th, 11am The Friendship Garden Let's have fun learning about the fastest growing flowers with a favorite Winnie the Pooh Story called "The Friendship Garden" — Then, we'll plant sunflower seeds to take home.

Wednesday, January 15th, 11am The Bug Hunt We'll start off at the stage for story time, then we'll head out on a bug hunt all around the Garden.

Thursday, January 16th, 11am The Honey Cake Mix-up We have mini cupcakes for a sweet treat to enjoy with today's Winnie the Pooh story.

Friday, January 17th, 11am Friendship Day After reading Winnie the Pooh's "Friendship Day" at the stage, we are coloring our own "Friendship Award" ribbons.

Tuesday, January 21st, 11am Hungry Harry Today is all about our cute & wet friend, the frog! Come to the stage at 11am and listen along before making your own little puppet frog craft.

Friday, January 24th, 11am Planting Cantaloupe Seeds It's a great day for gardening! We're planting cantaloupe seeds to bring home and grow, plus cantaloupe fruit for a fresh treat.

Wednesday, January 29th, 11am Chinese New Year Snake Craft Happy Year of the Snake! We are crafting slithery pipe-cleaner snakes for today's craft.